Voters! Read and Judge for Yourself!

"I am not a Northern man; nor yet a Southern man; but I am a WESTERN MAN by birth, by habit, by education; and although still a United States man, with United States principles, yet within and subordinate to the Constitution, am wholly devoted to WESTERN INTERESTS." Speech of C. L. Vallandigham, in the House of Representatives, December 15, 1859.

"A house divided against itself cannot stand." I believe this Government CAN NOT ENDURE permanently, half slave and half free. I do not expect the house to fall but I do expect it will come to the dividing line. It will become all one thing, or all the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is in course of ultimate extinction; or its advocates will push it forward till it is as a leprosy in the State—old as well as new, North as well as South." Abraham Lincoln in his speech at Springfield.

"He (Lincoln) is a radical Republican, and is FULLY COMMITTED to the doctrine of the 'irrepressible conflict.' In his debates with Douglas he comes fully up to the highest mark of Republicanism, and is a man of will and nerve, and will not back down from his own assertions. He is not a compromise candidate by any means." The negro, Fred Douglass' paper, 25th May, 1860.

"I find the resolutions of the Convention [at Chicago] platform as satisfactory to me as if it had been framed, with my own hands, and the candidates adopted by it, eminent and able Republicans, with whom I have cordially co-operated in maintaining the principles embodied in that excellent creed." Wm. H. Secord's Letter to N. Y. Republican Committee.

"I rejoice that, although I am not nominated my name is here, and that they have so true and so faithful a representative in the coming contest as Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois. Gov. Chase's speech at the Columbus Ratification meeting.

"In disregarding this law (Fugitive Slave Law), the prisoners (Oberlin Rescuers) run the risk of their error consisting in sparing the lives of the slave catchers, (U. S. Marshals.) Those pirates should have been delivered over to the colored man and consigned to the doom of pirates, which should have been speedily executed. Giddings to Oberlin Rescuers.

"I do not object to your giving utterance to your views. I only object to your representing them as the sentiments of the Republican party. I, as one of that party, defend the Fugitive Slave Law. I would let any slave catcher who should pollute my residence to recapture a fugitive." Giddings to Tom Corwin.

"We would be glad to see the 'old War Horse' returned to Congress. Mr. Giddings is a man of fine talents, a wise and experienced Statesman, and a loyal Union man. There is not a better Republican, nor a more honest man in the Union than old Joshua R. Giddings." Dayton Gazette, July 20, 1860.

Hon. C. L. Vallandigham.

Democratic Candidate for Congress, will address the people at the following times and places:

At WEST ELKTON, Saturday, Sept. 8th, at 1 o'clock. A fine hickory pole will be raised.

At WEST ALEXANDRIA, Thursday, August 30th, at 8 o'clock.

At BOSTON, Indiana, (near the Preble line) Friday, August 31st, at 1 o'clock.

Committee Meeting.

The members of the Preble county Democratic Central Committee, are requested to meet at the office of Foos and Campbell, in Eaton, on Saturday, September 1st 1860, at 3 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of making all necessary preparations for the approaching mass meeting.

J. H. Foos, Secretary.

Removed.

John Hinman Jeweler has removed to Capt. McCabe's room on the corner of Baron and Somers streets.

The American House located on Main St. opposite the Odd Fellows building has been purchased by J. C. Boner, and has been thoroughly renovated, and refurnished. It is said to be a No. one Hotel.

John W. Stephens is prepared to accommodate the traveling public, and people generally with good horses, buggies, &c., &c., on accommodating terms. Give him a call when you wish to take a ride.

The Democratic meeting at Connersville, Ind., on the 21st inst., is said to be the largest, with one exception, that has ever assembled in Eastern Indiana. The crowd was estimated at from twenty to twenty-five thousand. The best of feeling is said to have prevailed and everything went as "merry as a marriage bell." You can see Indiana down for Douglas & Johnson by at least thirty thousand majority. Hurrah for Douglas.

A Fast Couple.

A few evenings since Justice Dunn was sitting in his sanctum, pondering upon the mutability of human affairs, he was startled by a "halloo" that would have wakened the sleepiest policeman that was ever discharged for sleeping on duty; upon going to the door he discovered a buggy containing a couple of "Lovers" who wished to know if that was the squire. Being answered in the affirmative, the young man handed the squire a paper writing, authorizing any person duly authorized to solemnize marriages, to join together in the bonds of happy wedlock—and (we have forgotten the names.) With his blandest smile and politest bow Justice Dunn asked them to alight and walk in, but alight and walk in they would not. The Justice insisted. The Lovers protested.—The Justice "caved" and married them right there in the street, in the presence of divers witnesses among whom was an individual just brought in for stealing a wagon, who remarked sotto voce,—that if the squire would settle his case in as short a time and in as satisfactory a manner to him as that seemed to be to the parties interested, he would ask no more.

The newly made wife smiled.—The Justice blushed. The crowd laughed, and the happy couple dashed off carrying with them the good wishes of all who witnessed the novel wedding.

Meeting at Camden.

On last Wednesday evening we took the opportunity of a leisure moment and made it convenient to attend the Democratic meeting at Camden. The true Democracy had made arrangements to raise a hickory pole in the afternoon, but owing to some difficulty the pole did not go up. Who the blame is attached to, we did not learn, some say it was because the iron bands, made by a Republican, were burnt so that their strength was insufficient to hold the splice, hence, as a matter of course the pole had to fall. The Democracy of Camden however say that the pole must be raised at some future day.

The meeting was large and the best of feeling prevailed. Not a word was said to mar the feelings of any one, until a lot of Black Republicans came on the ground to raise a muss, and in this they were sadly defeated, for we learn that the Douglas men outstripped them all.

Camden is one of the pleasantest little towns in Ohio, her citizens have the reputation of being peaceable sober and industrious people. We had the pleasure of an introduction to a host of the sturdy yeomanry of that section of the county, most of all of whom gave us their names for a copy of the Democratic Press.

We did not remain at the speaking at Camden in the evening, but have been informed that C. L. Vallandigham made one of his happiest efforts.

See full proceedings of the meeting in another column.

Court of Common Pleas.

But little has been done in Court. The celebrated Railroad cases have all been continued upon pretexts that we can't explain, and which our readers could not understand if we did.

The whole of last week was consumed in arguing demurrers and in disposing of motions, affidavits &c., in these interminable cases. The docket having been assigned with a view to having these cases tried, their being continued disarranged the whole term. Judge White adjourned Court on Friday and discharged the Jury until to-day (Wednesday) when the Criminal business will be disposed of.

Our German Douglas friends, raised a fine hickory pole in the East part of town on last Saturday afternoon. They are determined not to be out done by the Register clique, and they are firm in the support of the peoples candidate—S. A. Douglas. We presume the Register will have another, "dumbheit" article in this weeks issue, vilifying the Germans because they see proper to vote for the man of their choice.

J. H. Foos Esq., made a short speech, which was well received by the crowd.

Camp-Meeting.

On last Sabbath morning we, in company with several others, wended our way from Eaton to the Winchester Camp-meeting. Our journey thither was as agreeable as we could either wish or desire. The fields as we passed along presenting a beautiful appearance, from the care and industry bestowed on them; in the cultivation of their crops. We never witnessed a more abundant yield of corn anywhere; than we did between here and the camp-ground. The farms all the way are in a high state of cultivation, and studded over as it were, with good substantial dwellings, the abode—we have no doubt of comfort and peace. When we reached the camp-ground, we were still more surprised to see so large a number of persons present, engaged in divine service, and worshipping the author of their being.

The day passed away agreeably, and the religious exercises were listened to with marked attention by the numerous assemblage congregated together, for the purpose of attending divine service, and profiting from the wholesome truths dispensed to all "without money or price." About five o'clock in the afternoon we left the camp-ground for Eaton well satisfied with our visit to Winchester, and fully confident that its inhabitants are an intelligent, orderly and church-going people.

Republicans turn out and hear your Speakers.

The campaign meetings of the Republicans throughout the County, we hear are not well attended. On Saturday Aug. 15, I. E. Freeman, Esq., one of the most able and distinguished Stumpers in their ranks, in this County, addressed a meeting at West Alexandria. His audience consisted of six democrats and eight Republicans, all told. A friend at our elbow who was present vouches for the truth of the above statement. Gentlemen this is not right when Speakers of known intelligence and ability, go to the trouble of riding six miles, to address you; you ought to turn out and hear them. Our Democratic friend said that he did all in his power in the way of persuading the Republicans to go up and hear, but was answered "such speaking would not do them." Turn out boys, turn out, don't throw off on your Orators in that way.

High Toned Eloquence.

We are reliably informed, that a certain gentleman (?) from this place who regards himself a first class stump orator, in a recent speech at Richmond, astonished the denizens of that place with the following burst of eloquence, "I tell you ladies and gentlemen little Dugwont do. He ain't fit to carry guts to a bear, so he ain't." It's a pity the Republicans monopolize all the decency there is.

Dr. J. P. Brookins & Son, dealers in Drugs, Medicines, &c., &c., have on hand, at their old stand, a large lot of the most popular patent medicines of the day, they keep every article usually found in a store of the kind, all of which they will sell very cheap.

Our prospects are very flattering, we have never been connected with a newspaper establishment before, that promised better support. We feel assured that we will be supported, and that the Democratic Press will become one of the permanent institutions of Preble county.

Discouraging.

From some cause the Political Sunday school meeting on the Court House steps was thinly attended on last Sunday. We think by next week we can give the names of all present, without crowding our columns.

Perhaps.

We wonder if the lame New Par is correspondent of the Register, is one of the individuals who boasted that Dr. Peck would have to leave town or be killed, and that in either event Douglas would lose one vote?

Wonder when Judge Brindle, as the Republicans in the Western part of this county denominated their candidate for Proprietor Judge, will next address the citizens?

Let every body attend the big meeting at Boston, Ind., Friday.

"Roots and Leaves will be for the healing of"

Mrs. Victorine Holland.

The great European Clairvoyant of the 19th century, and world renowned Healing Medium of the age, has arrived in Cincinnati, and established an Infirmary at this wonderful Lady has been travelling through Europe and West India, South America, California, and the United States, for the last thirteen years, and has been endowed from her birth with a supernatural gift to such an astonishing degree, that she convinces the most skeptical of her wonderful powers. In short, through the assistance of some superior power she is endowed with the Healing Art. Madame Holland is a Physician indeed! She cures the following complaints in their most obstinate stages, viz:

Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Dropsy in the Chest, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Erysipelas, Scurvy, and all other Nervous Derangements. Also, diseases of the Blood, such as the Scrofula, Erysipelas, Cancer, Fever, Scrofula, and all other Complicated Chronic Complaints.

All forms of Female difficulties attended to with the happiest results. It is hoped that one will despair of a cure until they have given Mad. H.'s medicine a trial. During her travels, she has been the instrument in God's hands of restoring to health and vigor, thousands who were on the verge of the grave, and who are now living monuments of her skill and successful treatment, and are daily exclaiming, "blessed be thy name first we were dead, and now we are alive, thanks to the medicine of Madame Holland's unrivaled medicine."

Satisfactory references will be cheerfully given when required. Madame H. will pledge her reputation and stake her all to make permanent cures in all cases which she undertakes.

Her mode of examination is with a Clairvoyant eye, or second sight. She therefore asks no questions, nor does she require invalids to explain symptoms; telling their cause and location with so much satisfaction as to merit and receive the confidence of all who have consulted her.

When pain and anguish wring the brow, Administering angel thou hast come, When nature's or the laws of life, N. B. Madame Holland absolutely advises nothing but what she has full ability to perform.

Persons living at a distance by giving a statement of their cases will be attended to when required.

The Lightning Calculator!!! OR, THE SECRET OF RAPID AND ACCURATE COMPUTATION.

CONTAINING, also valuable information for Book Keepers.

THIS WONDERFUL SECRET enables the possessor to add up a column of figures, regardless of length, with surprising rapidity, therefore enabling him to ascertain the amount of a Bill of Sale page in the day-book, or a bill of account, &c., quicker than ever before done by any living person. In the practice of book keeping, by transferring whole columns from the Day-Book to the Ledger, etc., will frequently be found that the sum total differs. It enables the book-keeper in such a case, to ascertain if the mistake has been made in the computation or the extension of single accounts.

This guide to rapid and accurate computation is printed in a neat form, and will be mailed to any address, upon receipt of 25 cents, with a red stamp to pre-pay postage. Address, C. H. HARRISON, Professor of Mathematics, TOWANDA, PA.
